Georg Zass mega murderer

Zass (Georg Otto Ewald von Sass or Saß in German) was born into a Baltic German noble family. His ancestors were nobles from Westphalia who in the 15th century moved to the Baltic region, fought under the banner of the Order of the Sword, and in 1710, was among the 52 so-called chivalric families, including the Ungern-Sternbergs and Wrangel family, which took a solemn oath of allegiance to the Russian sovereign, Peter the Great. In 1813 at the age of fifteen, he entered military service as a cadet in the Grodno Hussar Regiment. He rose through the ranks of the Russian army and first saw action in the 1813 Battle of Leipzig. He was transferred to the Novgorod division in 1820.

PRÄSTER OCH KYRKOR

MARTYR. "DEN HELIGE ERASMUS MARTYRIUM", MÅLNING AV DIRK BOUTS (1458).

Martyr, blodsvittne eller blodsdop, det vill säga den som med sitt liv fått plikta för sin tro genom martyrdöden. I nutida språkbruk används ordet i en bredare betydelse, avseende personer som dödats, straffats, utsatts för våld eller andra övergrepp på grund av sin grupptillhörighet eller sitt ideologiska engagemang.
Den förste omtalade kristne martyren är Stefan (Apostlagärningarna). Under förföljelsernas århundraden blev martyrerna de kristna hjältarna framför andra, man bevarade deras kvarlevor (reliker), och deras dödsdagar firades med minneshögtider.
Martyrernas liv och död framställdes i konsten, framför allt i ikonmåleriet. Vanliga attribut är martyrkrona, palmkvist och kors som symboler för döden och uppståndelsen i Kristi efterföljelse.
